Document title:

I release the electronic version of my document for an indefinite period of time to the University Library of Würzburg (UB Würzburg) for publishing on the institutional repository of the University of Würzburg (OPUS Würzburg). Therefore, the following provisions shall apply:

§ 1 Transfer of rights

The University Library shall be entitled to archive and cultivate the electronic full text version of my document for an indefinite period of time and to make it publicly available on the Internet. It is left to the author's discretion to dispose of his/her work otherwise, provided this does not involve a restriction of the rights given to the University Library within this declaration.

§ 2 Legal ownership

I assure that the submitted document does not infringe legal regulations, regulatory actions or third party rights. I particularly assure that I have sole legal ownership of the named document, that I hold all required rights of use and that the electronic form is identical to the original version of the thesis regarding form and content. In case of publisher's compilations I have obtained assent of all contributing authors. I am responsible for the content of the documents to be published.

§ 3 Indexing by meta data

If necessary, the University Library of Würzburg shall be entitled to change and/or complete the delivered meta data.

§ 4 Permission to convert

For the purpose of fulfilling its archiving responsibility the University Library of Würzburg shall be permitted to convert my document into another format if necessary. The University library shall not be liable for any possible changes resulting from conversion.

§ 5 Forwarding

The University Library of Würzburg shall be permitted to forward the electronic publication(s) including its meta data to the German national library („Die Deutsche Nationalbibliothek“) and to other relevant document servers with the same forementioned rights.

§6 Only for Dissertations and Habilitations

I assure that the electronic version fully corresponds to the authorized printing version. I agree that with the electronic publishing of my above mentioned thesis and the corresponding meta data, my personal data included in the thesis (e.g. cv) will be publicly accessible.

§7 License

The publication(s) shall be licensed under one of the following licenses:
